

Stem Cells: Science, Ethics, and Politics in Dialogue

Program:

Part I. Background, Framing of Issues, and Science

1:00 Welcome. Kristen Renwick Monroe, Moderator.

1:15 Background and Framing of Issues. Paul Silverman, Biological Sciences, UCI

1:45 The Science of Stem Cell Research. Peter Bryant, Biological Sciences, UCI

2:15 Questions and comments from the audience.

2:30 Break. Refreshments in atrium.

Part II. Utilizing Stem Cells. Philip Schwartz, Moderator.

3:00 A Clinician's View. Leonard Sender, UCI Hematology and CHOC

3:30 Ethical Issues in Stem Cell Research, Philip J. Nickel, Biological Sciences and Philosophy, UCI

4:00 Questions and comments from the audience

4:15 Break. Refreshments in atrium

Part III. The Politics of Stem Cell Research. Ronald B. Miller, Moderator.

4:45 The View from California, Larry Goldstein, UCSD

5:15 The View of the National Debate. Lee Zwanziger, Virginia Tech, Science and Technology Studies

5:45 Questions and comments from the audience.

6:15 Reception

7:00pm-9:00pm Dinner (Reservations required in advance. Seating limited)

After dinner discussion led by Paul Silverman and moderated by Kristen Monroe